

The Children's Garden Project
June 24, 2009 Meeting

The meeting was called to order at 6:35p.m. The minutes were read and approved by Kim Ciuffini, seconded by Joan Carroll.

First order of discussion was Yoga at the Garden. The village hall will be available for possible rain outs for Tuesday and Thursday Yoga classes.

Next on the agenda was the June 27, 2009 Hospice Garden Walk which the Children's Garden will be a participant in. Sharon Moss and Rose Ragusa will be purchasing cookies and tea, Kim will provide the ice and Sheila will be bringing the orange containers for water and tea. Kim will be getting name tags for all of the volunteers.

Garden Camp sign up will be July 18, 2009. Discussion on the snacks and food were gone over. We will need empty water bottles. Phyllis and her artists will be painting at the garden two of the four days. Kim will be picking up the soil. Crocks and annuals will be needed for one of the camp days. Kathy will be checking on the rope making machine. Sheila will be picking up four bales of straw. T-shirts will be giving to each one of the camp kids this year.

Next was Fall Fest October 4, 2009. Advertising for the fest will begin the month of August. Time of the marionette show will be changed. All children must be accompanied by an adult. Silent Auction items should be turned in no later than July meeting.

Some ideas were discussed about a one room school house, we will need to find a carpenter.

A note will be put in the newsletter looking for caretakers needed to weed and cultivate a row or two of vegetables this summer. Our farm garden has been expanded to provide the community will more food this season.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:20p.m.
